

CURRICULUM VITAE

Prof. Konstantin Ivanov Hadjiivanov, DSc

Year and place of birth	1958, Sofia, Bulgaria
Current employer/position	Bulgarian Academy of Sciences (BAS), vice-president
Education	1981, Sofia University, inorganic chemistry
Academic position	Professor, 2002, Institute of General and Inorganic Chemistry, BAS
Fields of interest	adsorption, catalysis, surface science, vibrational spectroscopy, porous materials
Scientific publications	206
Citations (w/o autocitations)	> 8000
H-index	45 (Web of Knowledge)
Leadership of projects	17, including 2 CoE
Administrative and management	2004–2012, Institute of General and Inorganic Chemistry, BAS, director
Visiting professorships	9 times invited professor at P. et M. Curie University, Paris, France; University of Caen, Caen, France, and University of Cagliari, Cagliari, Italy
Important awards	2006, Bulgarian Union of Scientists, diploma for high scientific achievements 2009, Pythagoras award for established scientist 2012, Corresponding Member of the Bulgarian Academy of Sciences 2007, Doctor honoris causa of the University of Caen, France 2011, member of Academia Europaea 2018, Marin Drinov Honorary Sign on ribbon
E-mail	kih@svr.igic.bas.bg
Web page	http://www.igic.bas.bg/kux.html